

MORNING APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9

Small pox is having its sway in unusual prominence in the Eastern States just at present. Railway and steamship travel seems to be aiding its spread with celerity and dispatch. In the capital city of New York the prevalence of the disease has been limited, but it was introduced by a railway passenger and spread to some extent before it was placed under quarantine. Not long since, a man rode from New York to Cleveland suffering from what proved to have been the early stages of the disease; and it is fair to suppose that he gave a pretty general exposure to others. There arrived recently at New York the steamship Victoria from Gibraltar, with smallpox on board of her 493 passengers. Of course she was put out in quarantine. But in interstate travel, there is no quarantine.

Mrs. Langtry as a Landowner.
"You are a fairly large landed proprietress in the States?" asked a British reporter of Mrs. Langtry:

"Yes; my solicitor in New York tells me that one can't go wrong in buying real estate in certain parts of the country. I have a cattle ranch of nearly 5,000 acres out west in California, with about 800 head of cattle. I am also going in for horse breeding there, and have secured a "Hemitt" stallion. At present my property is about 30 miles from a railroad but I am looking forward to the time when an extension will bring my piece into the market. Why, in a few years it may become building land. Do you remember the Los Angeles 'boom' four or five ago, when every one in New York who could scrape up a dollar or two together rushed to that town to buy land? Men were sitting at tables in the streets selling real estate by the square mile. At the present time when I visit my ranch I have to go out in a coach and six; but the railway will reach it in time!" And Mrs. Langtry smiles at the thought of her judicious investment.

More Land for the Landless.

Major Powell's announcement that irrigation will bring into the productive area of the United States 100,000,000 acres of land now reckoned barren, will perhaps help to still the absurd predictions of certain English wiseacres, that by the end of the century America will have no more land to be generous with. Probably twice or thrice that area will eventually be reclaimed.

There is a man in Lundy who can and does drink half a gallon of whiskey every day, and keep at work. Besides this, he can cuss a mule in every language known between the Arctic Circle and Cape Horn. When he starts in on the spike-tailed hybrids with Hudson's Bay French they know that the old man has struck a knew brand of liquor.—Ind-x.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trumps put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

K. C. Eldridge the agent for the Singer Sewing Machine has also secured the agency for several leading pianos including the following makes, McEwen, Antisell Newby and Evans, and several others, which he will sell on reasonable installments. For further particulars or inspection apply at his agency next to the Ormsby House.

Dr. E. G. Winnie can be found at his Dental Parlors on Telegraph St. one door west of Carson.

A HALE OLD MAN.—Mr. James Wilson of Allens Springs, Ill., who is over sixty years of age, says: "I have in my time tried a great many medicines, some of excellent quality; but never before did I find any that would so completely do all that is claimed for it as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is truly a wonderful medicine." For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and strain say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

PIANO TUNING.—Frederick Zech is now in the city attending to the piano tuning formerly attended to by his brother, and will be found at Charles Friend's until further notice, where he is prepared to receive all orders, which will be promptly attended to. s22
